OPERATORS ARE NOT OPTIMISTIC ABOUT MEETING

Fear They Will be Unable to Reach Agreement with Farrington

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Illinois coal operators today definitely accepted the proposal of Frank Farrington, head of the Illinois miners' union, for a joint conference of operators and miners here Friday but spokesmen for the operators tonight were not optimistic over the outcome.

"If Farrington will agree to our original proposition—for the miners to resume work immediately under the present wage scale and the questions of the wage scale for 1923, of working conditions, the checkoff, etc., be left to arbitration peace will be made and coal mined immediately in the state," Dr. F. C. Honnold, secretary of the Illinois Coal Operators' Association declared. "If this proposal is not accepted, I look for a deadlock."

Mr. Honnold declared that the agreement reached at the Cleveland conference between miners and operators would not meet with approval if it were presented to Illinois operators by Mr. Farrington. The plan of John L. Lewis, head of the miners, as presented at Cleveland was declared "inadequate and unsatisfactory" by Mr. Honnold. He asserted that the plan contemplated determination of wage scales by a national conference which he said guaranteed the establishment of a monopoly by the miners' union thruout the country and said that only miners and operators are included in such conferences, the public not being represented.

Robert Medill, state fuel administrator, today announced that he was issuing priority orders for fuel on his own responsibility pending the appointment of committees by Governor Len Small to pass on such applications. He said that most of these orders at present were being issued to Chicago petitioners for fuel and that he would continue to issue them until the governor's committees were named and authorized to act.

TRAINMEN REFUSE TO HANDLE NON-UNION COAL

(By The Associated Press)
WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. Aug. 16.—Train crews of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad at Cypress Junction, south of the coal fields in this vicinity have refused to pull coal dug by non-union miners of Kentucky and Alabama, thru the Southern Illinois coal belt and as a result the road's service wil be crippled and probably suspended in this section if the road cannot get coal for its own use officials o the road announced tonight following a conference today.

At the meeting which was attender by W. S. Reeder trainmaster of the C. and E. I. division at Salem, Illinois, and sub-district officials of the United Mine Workers, it was said that signs worning union trainmen not to transport coal thru the coal belt have been posted conspicuously along the railroad right of way. Lon Fox, president of the local sub-district miners' union said the United Mine Workers did not countenance any interference with the transportation of coal by strikiny miners. He denied reports that the miners had posed the signs.

It was said at the conference that the trainmen claimed that heir lives were in danger as a result of the posting of the signs.

Several train crews have reported being fred upon in the coal belt recently.

RESUMPTION OF COAL DIGGING IN FEW MINES

Other Sections Are Preparing to Start to Work

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Coal digging was resumed in a few scattered mines today as a result of the partial settlement at Cleveland yesterday of the soft coal strike. Other sections were preparing to resume mining soon conferences in three states had been set for operators and union leaders to consult regarding agreements for their districts. The situation according to statements of union chiefs and operators was setforth as follows:

The miners will receive the same wages as paid last year under the Cleveland agreement which John L. Lewis, international president of the union characterized as a basic agreement under which state and local supplement agreements could be dawn up between operators and miners. Neither an effort to reduce wages by the operators represented at the Cleveland meeting nor demands for a six hour day, formulated by miners' meetings previous to the strike were pressed.

Seven states were represented in the Cleveland meeting instead of the four—Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois—of the central competitive field which Mr. Lewis formerly had insisted must make the basis agreement. The state represented were West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Oklahoma and Washington with a combined tonnage of 60,000,000 according to Mr. Lewis.

Operators elsewhere questioned the tonnage figures and declared only a small part of the total central competitive field was represented. The National Coal association announced that regardless of the relatively small representation the agreemnt would lead the way to settlement to most sections. Altho the majority of Indiana and Illinois operators did not sign the Cleveland agreement conferences of operators and union chiefs in those states were set for Friday. Southwestern operators and union leaders were to get together next Tuesday.

Checkoff System Retained.

The checkoff system of deducting miners' union dues from their wages and paid direct to the unions by the operators was retained in the Cleveland agreement. The Pittsburgh Coal Producers' association one of the big organizations that remained outside the Cleveland agreement announced its refusal to accept the checkoff or abide by the Cleveland settlement.

Notwithstanding hostility to the characterization of the Cleveland settlement as "a basic agreement" expressed by some operators, both operators and union heads in most states expressed optimism of local and district settlements soon.

Besides adopting the old wage scale, the Cleveland conference set a joint meeting of operators and miners for October 2 at Cleveland to appoint a committee to formulate a method for negotiating a wage scale to go into effect April 1, 1923, and to select a commission of inquiry, the personnel of which would be approved by the president of the United States to investigate the coal industry to find all facts bearing upon the welfare alike of public operators and miners and to make a report which would encourage a better spirit of responsibility on the part of all parties concerned, and to suggest the establishment of machinery for settling all disputes.

Mr. Lewis today declared that the miners had emerged "victorious" from the strike of 650,000 bituminous and anthracite miners.

The union leaders and anthracite operators will meet in Philadelphia tomorrow in an effort to settle the hard coal strike.

SPECIAL AGENT IS DISMISSED FROM REVENUE SERVICE

Said to Have Made Statement About W. B. McKinley

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 16.—Joseph H. Tatro, special intelligence agent of the United States bureau of internal revenue, made public tonight a letter dismissing him from the service. In explaining this action, he also made public a letter received by him from David Nolan, acting special agent in charge in Chicago, which in part follows:

"Complaint has been received by the chief special intelligence unit that about three weeks ago, during a conversation with Assistant United States Attorney Edward Weisl, you stated to him without sufficient evidence to support such statement, substantially as follows:

"That you expected to present to him for appropriate action in a short time 'the largest case in the United States, a case centering around the alleged fraudulent withdrawal of some 1,800 cases of whiskey, and would involve United States Senator McKinley, a Mr. Willoughby (the senator's secretary), some assistant district attorneys and other prominent politicians.' That, about three weeks, more or less ago, during a conversation with United States Commissioner Mason you stated to him without sufficient evidence to support such statement, substantially as follows:

"That you expected to call on him shortly with complaint against Chester A. Willoughby and his boss, the inference being taken that you alluded to United States Senator William McKinley by whom Mr. Willoughby is said to be employed as a secretary.

"That on Saturday, July 29, 1922, you made an untruthful statement to the chief intelligence unit in that you entered a positive denial in making the statements in charges one and two."

In his answer Mr. Tatro denied he had made the statements credited to him and charged there was a conspiracy to bring about his dismissal.

"Seemingly to impeach my testimony in criminal cases now pending, also to permit certain investigations I have commenced to evaporate."

He also declared that Mr. Nolan had "knowledge of certain investigations on which I am now engaged that if completed, might in fact involve some of the persons I am charged with having named."

Mr. Tatro also referred to his record with the department for the past 15 years as proof of his integrity.

ILLINOIS MINERS MAY REMAIN OUT FARRINGTON SAYS

Illinois President Says Operators Must Recede from Stand

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 16—Unless Illinois operators recede from their arbitration basis settlement stand and accept terms similar to those made in the recent wage conference of Cleveland, Illinois miners will remain on strike, Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners declared today on his arrival from Cleveland.

"There isn't a chance in the world of ending the strike in Illinois," President Farrington said, "unless Illinois operators abandon their present arbitration basis plan. The agreement will have to follow along the lines of that signed at Cleveland.

"In my opinion," added President Farington, "there won't be any great amount of rejoicing among Illinois miners as soon as they learn the terms of this Cleveland agreement."

When asked to predict the time Illinois miners would return to work President Farington said that it might be months unless terms similar to those adopted at Cleveland are accepted by Illinois operators. He was pessimistic regarding the end of the strike and the resumption of mining in Illinois at an early date.

"It seems to be the general impression," President Farrington continued, "that I am in favor of a separate peace agreement on an arbitration basis. This is absolutely without foundation. I have never taken that stand and don't propose to."

The presidents of the three coal operators' associations of Illinois President Farrington said have accepted his invitation to a conference in Chicago next Friday morning. President Farrington will depart for Chicago tomorrow night and will go in session with the operators Friday morning.

RAIL EXECUTIVES AND UNION CHIEFS MEET AGAIN TODAY

Will Confer in New York City in Effort to Settle Strike

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 16—Agreement between railroad executives and railroad labor organization leaders to hold another conference tomorow in New York to seek a settlement of the shopmen's strike, it was said today, had resulted in President Harding questioning the desirability of making his expected report to congress and the country on the strike situation within the next few hours.

Plans made for the reception of his communication tomorrow at a joint session of the house and senate consequently were understood to be on the verge of a revision tonight, as the president was reported as being desirious of withholding his statement if the union chiefs and the railroad presidents' could hold out any prospect of a mutually satisfactory settlement.

Heads of the seven railroad organizations on the strike met today with the officials of unions not involved in the controversy and reached a decision to take almost the entire group to New York.

The officers of the five organizations of train service employes the engineers, conductors, firemen brakemen and switchmen, will be the only ones actually to meet with the committee of railway executives, their chairman Warren S. Stone, declared they desired close at hand all the strike leaders and the spokesmen for all the other railroad unions.

Mr. Stone and the brotherhood officials who will meet with the rail executives declared they were not taking any prepared proposition to the meeting with the managements.

"I wouldn't be fool enough to put it in the newspapers if I had one anyway," Mr. Stone remarked.

L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Conductors said the demand of the strikers for full seniority status in case of their return to work could not be modified and the views of the strike leaders appeared to coincide entirely with this position.

President Harding, who was understood to be preparing his message to congress held discussions concerning it during the day with Senator Lodge, the Republican leader. It was considered certain, advisers said that he would not request legislation to deal with the rail strike.

Senator Harreld, Republican, Oklahoma, lost his fight to impose tariffs on crude petroleum and fuel oil and Democrats were unsuccessful in efforts to reduce the rates on aluminum.

Senate leaders hope that after the final vote Saturday the measure can be sent to conference immediately.

LONG DROUGHT IS BROKEN THRUOUT THE NORTHWEST

Beneficial Rains Have Fallen in Many Localities During Week

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Breaking of the drought in the northwest and the beneficial effect of the rains on crops in that section constituted the features of the weekly weather and crop review issued today by the weather bureau for the week ending yesterday.

Rainfall was sufficient during the week, the review stated in most of the central Trans-Mississippi states. Continued dry weather caused further damage to crops in many central northern localities, particularly in Minnesota and in the southwest.

Threshing made good progress in the northern portions of the country except for delay caused by rains in the northwest. Small grains were reported as yielding below expectations in the lake region.

The weather was reported too cool for the best development of the corn crop from the lake region eastward and moisture was deficient in some interior localities, particularly in parts of Ohio valley. On the whole the corp was said to have made satisfactory progress.

MEREDOSIA BRIDGE BRINGS BUSINESS

People West of River Now Coming to Jacksonville—Daily Toll Already Averages $30.

Chamber of Commerce representatives are very soon to begin solicitation of funds for the Meredosia bridge. When this project was presented by the commercial association of Meredosia, it was agreed that Jacksonville business men would pay their share toward the improvement. Now it is necessary to make good on that promise, which was entirely justified by the proposed improvement. It is said that since the bridge has been opened the average daily toll is $30 and the figures indicate that many persons are using the bridge.

There can be no doubt but that numerous tourists have been routed thru Jacksonville and over the Meredosia bridge who would have gone some other way had the bridge not been opened. Vincent Riley who recently has visited Perry, Pittsfield and a number of cities and towns on the other side of the river, found a very definite interest in the Meredosia bridge.

People made inquiries about the bridge route to Jacksonville. There is no question in Mr. Riley's mind but that a great many people from Pike, Brown and Schuyler counties will now come to Jacksonville who were not accustomed to make the trip when it was necessary to drive to Valley City or some other point and ferry across the river.

PRESIDENT LEWIS SAYS SETTLEMENT MINER'S VICTORY

Issues Statement Before Leaving for Philadelphia

(By The Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 16—Before leaving for Philadelphia tonight to take part in the anthracite negotiations tomorrow, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers announced that additional agreements amounting to approximately 10,000,000 tons annual soft coal production were executed here today in the settlement in part of the bituminous coal strike.

"Acceptance of the approximately sixty million tons annual production represented in the conference of miners and operators yesterday and the execution of additional agreements today involving something more than ten million tons production gives the settlement impetus that will be irresistible," Mr. Lewis said in a statement today.

He predicted that a general acceptance of agreements by practically all operating units in the organized sections of the bituminous industry would be in effect within a short time.

"The negotiation of the basic interstate agreement at the Cleveland meeting yesterday," said Mr. Lewis in his statement "definitely determines the three main issues involved in the strike of 650,000 miners in the anthracite mining industries.

"Acceptance of this agreement by 60,000,000 tons annual production represented in the conference and the execution of additional agreements today involving something more than 10,000,000 tons additional production gives the settlement impetus that will be irresistible.

"I predict that within a short time general acceptance of similar agreements by practically all operating units in the organized sections of the bituminous industry.

Says It Is Object Lesson

This constitutes an object lesson that will be especially helpful in adjusting the strike in the anthracite coal fields.

"The miners have won their contention against the idea of single state settlements with their union, split up into thirty or more segregated groups. The Cleveland agreement takes the place of the old central competitive field agreement and operators who are not yet parties to the contract will be obliged to conform to the principles outlined in the basic settlement. District or group meetings which will be held shortly in certain sections will be for the purpose of executing supplementary contracts or executing clauses of the agreement.

"The miners have won their fight against reduction of wages in the mining industry. The much heralded theory of deflation or liquidation of labor has been diligently pressed thruout the long struggle. This theory has now suffered another collapse as far as affecting the mining industry and the miners have demonstrated that they could not be beaten backward.

"Despite unfavorable economic conditions and with tremendous political and financial influence raised against us, we are emerging from the conflict victorious.

"The miners have likewise won their fight for retention of the principles of collective bargaining as against substitution of arbitration for this principle. Every interest opposed to labor was concentrated in a drive against our position on this question and the attack was made with astonishing ferocity.

"The agreement contained no commitment for arbifration but on the other hand has been written on a brod premise which gives reasonable assurance that machinery of collective bargaining will be strengthened and improved.

"The United Mine workers of America after participating in an industrial convulsion covering a period of twenty weeks is emerging with increased membership and enhanced prestige and is a more potent influence in industrial affairs than ever before in its history."

A THOUGHT

Look at the generations of old, and see; did ever any trust in the Lord, and was confounded? Or did any abide in His fear, and was forsaken? Or whom did He ever despise that called upon him?—Ecclesiastics.

I dare do all that may become a man;
Who dares do more is none.
—Shakespeare.

Three honor convicts escaped the other day from the farm at the Joliet penitentiary. Have you noticed how often "honor" convicts escape? In some instances, the charge is justified that too much sentiment is mixed up with the penalties imposed upon wrong doers.

The Illinois Manufacturers association proposes the raising of a fund of $100,000 to aid the attorney general of Illinois to probe the Herrin massacre. Things have come to a pretty pass in this state, if it is necessary for private citizens to raise funds for such a purpose. Illinois should always have plenty of funds available for the enforcement of law and for the punishment of those who do not obey the law.

It is gratifying to know that so many applications have been filed that it is certain the attendance at local colleges this year will be greater than ever before. Every available room at the colleges will be filled and indications are that many more students could be enrolled if the facilities were available.

It must be admitted that this is not a local condition, for unusual demands are being made upon the universities and colleges thruout the country. People today are thoro believers in college training.

Mr. Lewis of the mine workers declares that the miners have won a decisive victory by the agreemnt reached at the Cleveland conference. Some of the operators say that there has been a partial victory for them owing to the fact that the four state competive field agreement of the past has been knocked out, since seven or eight states were partially represented at the conference.

One thing is very certain, that the public did not win a victory at Cleveland.

A monster petition is to be filed asking that at the fall election the people of Illinois express their views as to whether the Volstead act be amended to legalize light wines and beers. This amounts to a proposal to ask the people of this state whether or not an amendment to the constitution should be enforced.

When the petition referred to is filed a special train is to carry a large number of Chicago people to the state capital for the purpose of making an impressive spectacle. It will be very fitting for the United Society of Chicago to be thus represented at the filing.

It was a compliment even to Mr. Bryan for a Morgan county audience to wait patiently for an hour and a half on a swelteringly hot August day for his coming, then to listen for an hour and a half to a sermon.

It was a still further compliment because the thousands in that audience evidently felt that the three hours had been well spent. Ministers who find difficulty in persuading audiences to listen patiently for thirty to forty minutes have real reason to be jealous of Mr. Bryan.

SOME VITAL STATISTICS

What is "the average American" like Politicians talk about him. Newspapers write about him. Psychologists hold him up as a sort of phantom in their shadow boxing. The average American man is 5 feet 7 1-2 inches tall. He weighs 141 1-2 pounds.

This is announced by Maj. Gen. Merritte W. Ireland, surgeon general of the army, after studying the records of 1,000,000 who were examined for service in the last war.

The shortest American men are in Rhode Island. The tallest are in Texas and the mountains of North Carolina. Even at that, they average only about an inch above or below "the average American."

South Dakota men averaged heavier than any other state's. Rhode Island men were the lightest. The two groups varied only five pounds above and below normal.

Out of each 100 city men examined for the army, 61 physical defects were found. The figure was only 53 for the farm boys. This confirms what you already know—that health is in this country, close to the soil.

Three out of each 200 men examined were rejected for mental defects—inadequacies or abnormalities. On this basis, at least 1,500,000 Americans have hopelessly inferior brains, some of them of the vegetable type.

Millions of bits of valuable information, each leading to an important and helpful deduction, can be drawn from Ireland's analysis of "the average American."

HAD GOOD RAINS

The weather man is certainly partial and wary of Jacksonville with his sprinkler. A gentleman coming from Greenfield said yesterday morning it rained so hard there he was almost sunk in the mud and had hard work to get along tho a short distance north and west of the place there was little. Chambersburg was visited with a good rain recently and Payson had a regular downpour. Hope our turn will come soon.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT FRANKLIN PICNIC

First Day of Woodmen and Odd Fellow Picnic Is Great Success —Program Was In Charge of Woodmen.

A record breaking attendance marked the first day of the two day picnic given by the Woodmen and Odd Fellows of Franklin. Before noon a large number of persons had assembled in the park and the number was greatly augmented during the afternoon.

The Woodmen were in charge of the program Wednesday and the main feature of the afternoon was an address by Hon. C. S. Townley of Rock Island, state deputy. The Woodson band played during the afternoon at the park and later at the ball park, where a vast throng witnessed a game between Franklin and Murrayville teams. The game was an exciting, hard fought one from start to finish and the final score was 4 to 3 in favor of Franklin.

A great quantity of burgoo soup had been prepared by George Jolly and his corps of assistants and this met with ready sale. The same was true of the other eatables which were provided.

The delegation of Woodmen from Jacksonville numbered fully seventy-five and many of those who made the trip remained for the platform dance in the evening. Music for this feature was provided by an Italian orchestra from Pawnee. A free moving picture program was another of the evening features.

The program for today was arranged by the Odd Fellows lodge and will include an address by Hon. J. L. Yantis of Shelbyville, grand master.

CARE WITH MOTOR CARS IS URGED

Roadmaster of the Alton Calls Attention to Need of Oserving Speed Rules.

The fact that a C. & A. motor car recently collided with an automobile north of the city is taken as a text by the C. & A. roadmaster in urging greater care. He is quoted in the Bloomington Pantagraph as follows:

"Morris Donohue, general roadmaster of the Chicago & Alton, is urging safety first upon section foremen in operating motor cars. He refers to the recent mishap at Jacksonville in which a company motor car upon which section men were riding collided with an automobile, injuring a number of employes. Mr. Donahue says: 'Numerous instructions sent out, together with 'Book of Rules' on the safe operation of motor cars, are not being lived up to by some of our foremen.

"There is no excuse for a motor car colliding with a car, vehicle, person or obstruction on a road or street crossing. The speed of al motor cars must be brought down to five miles per hour, or slow enough to stop (depending on braking power clear of the driveway; otherwise persons in charge of motor car having such collision will be held responsible for the accident. When cars are standing on an adjacent track close up to either side of a crossing great care must be exercised in passing over such crosing.

"Foremen in charge of motor car must always he on the lookout for tools or such like shifting or)dropping of front end of the motor cars when running as well as to reduce speed passing over rogs and switches, around sharp curves and be constantly on the alert for trains. Every motor car acident from now on will be thoroly investigated and where the foreman or man operating car is responsible, discipline will be applied."

TRAVELERS TO THE CITY OF BROTHERLY LOVE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haig and two children passed thru the city enroute to their home in Philadelphia. They had been to Kansas City and other western points and were leisurely making their way back. Mr. and Mrs. Haig were intelligent and pleasing persons to meet. Mr. Haig said he had generally found good roads but complained of black prairie dust which he found annoying.

His experience with rural hotel landlords was somewhat discouraging. He found even in small places, prices unreasonably high: four dollars a night for himself and family and the children were respectively eighteen months and three years old. One greedy landlord charged them nine dollars for lodging and breakfast. Accordingly Mr. Haig fitted up a Dodge car with all sorts of camping conveniences and now he snaps his fingers at the people who would like to bleed him.

Arenzville, Illinois, August 16—The Annual Cass County Farm Bureau picnic was held yesterday at Roegge Grove in Arenzville. The program started at 10 o'clock with a horse shoe pitching contest, but the majority of the large number that attended the affair did not arrive until noon. Woman Relied Upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Emporia, Kansas. — "I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines years ago when I was a girl. For several years I had severe pains at menstrual periods, making me very weak and interfering with my regular duties. I tried several remedies, without obtaining relief. I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and it restored me to normal health. I often have occasion and do recommend your Vegetable Compound to my friends who have troubles similar to my own. You may use these facts as a testimonial."—EVA ALDRICH, 218 Union St., Emporia, Kansas.

LIFE LONG RESIDENT OF MANCHESTER DIES

Death of James M. Heaton Occurred Late Wednesday Afternoon —Other Items From Manchester.

Manchester, Aug. 16—The death of James M. Heaton occurred at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of his brother, Henry Heaton, where he had been for some time past. The deceased had been practically an invalid for more than a year past and in recent weeks his condition had become more and more serious until death came as indicated above.

Mr. Heaton was born in Manchester Sept. 3, 1842, and was thus almost eighty years of age at the time of his death. He was a son of A. H. and Lucy Heaton, who were among the pioneer residents of the community. The elder Mr. Heaton was for years in the mercantile business here, and the son succeeded the father and conducted the business for more than fifty years, or until failing health necessitated his retirement.

The deceased was united in marriage to Miss Helen Wilkins, who passed away eleven years ago. One daughter, May, was born to them and she died at the age of eighteen years.

Surviving are three brothers, George Heaton of Cheyenne, Wyo, William and Henry Heaton, both of Manchester.

Mr. Heaton was a man of sturdy character and his influence in the community was ever on the side of the right. He was liberal with his time and money in the support of various movements for public welfare and there are many who can testify to the fact that he never refused a plea for help where such was really needed.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but the services will probably be held Friday.

The first was at 6:30 o'clock to the jewelry store of Schram and Burhman, 37 South Side square. Some paper had been placed in the furnace and set afire. The drafts were closed and the building filled with smoke but no damage resulted.

At 7:30 o'clock the department received a call from the residence of Mrs. Walter Cooper, 417 Marion street. This alarm was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove. The blazing stove was thrown into the yard before any damage resulted.

P. D. Q., Pesky Devils Quietus, is the name of the new chemical that actually ends the bug family. Bed Bugs, Roaches, Ants and Fleas, as P. D. Q. kills the live one, and their eggs and stops future generations. Not an insect powder but a chemical unlike anything you have ever used.

A 35 cent package makes one quart and each package contains a patent spout, to get the Pesky Devils in the cracks and crevices.

Your druggist has it or he can get it for you. P. D. Q. can also be purchased in sealed bottles (Continued on page 4)

BLUFFS CHURCH HAD PICNIC WEDNESDAY

Annual All Day Picnic of M. E. Church Held on School House Grounds—Big Crowd in Attendance.

Buffs, Aug. 16.—The annual picnic of the Bluffs M. E. church was held Wednesday on the school house grounds. The attendance was a record breaker, more than 1,500 persons visiting the grounds during the day and evening. The Bluffs band furnished a splendid program during the day and evening and in the afternoon there was an address by Prof. W. J. Weber of the Woma's College at Jacksonville.

Burgoo soup and other good things to eat were provided in great abundance and both dinner and supper were served. More than $600 was taken in during the day and it is estimated that the net proceeds of the day will be about half this amount.

There were several contests in the afternoon for boys and girls, in which many participated. The winners were as follows:

50 Yard Dash for Girls—First prize, Emiline Terrence; Second prize, Flossie Flynn.

About Ideal Bread

It has been some weeks since this company acquired the ownership of the big Ideal Bakery and its management has been working hard reorganizing the business from the ground up.

Expert bakers have been added, new processes tested, and already much progress has been made toward the production of breads which will earn for us the enviable and justified reputation of "Baking the Best Breads Made,"—the most satisfactory loaf for the entire family.

Some new machinery has been added but we have been delayed in completing installations because of rail conditions.

Already our "Ideal" and "Old English" breads have met with great favor. Soon we will add other breads and miscellaneous bakery products to our list.

Watch for our announcements, and ask your grocer for

GOOD MUSIC HEARD AT CHAUTAUQUA

Tschaikowsky Quartet Pleases Audiences—Mr. Perkins Discussed "The Convict and the State" — Interest Shown In 1923 Assembly.

Thursday, August 17

Morning—11:00 o'Clock
Lecture, "A Life-Sized Portrait," Chas. A. Gage.

Afternoon—2:15 o'Clock
Concert, Morgans' Rainbow Division Band.
Lecture, William L. Stidger.

Evening—7:30 o'Clock
Address, 25 Minutes, "Better Health for Morgan County"—Dr. R. V. Brokaw, County Health Officer.
Grand Concert, Morgans' Rainbow Division Band.

The Tschaikowsky Quartet gave a fine concert program at the chautauqua Wednesday night. The program was somewhat longer than that given in the afternoon proceeding Mr. Bryan's lecture. Each one of this quartet is a finished artist and the programs gave abundant proof of that fact.

J. R. Perkins, formerly in charge of the Iowa State prison, made an address in the evening "The Convict and the State." Mr. Perkins advanced some ideas with reference to the treatment of offenders against the law. He was heard with great interest.

There is plenty of interest in the chautauqua for 1923, and Dr. W. E. Spoonts and his associate workers who have presented the matter to the audiences at various times report a gratifying number of subscriptions made. The funds arising from the general sale of tickets for 1922 and the gate receipts thus far made possible the announcement by President Heinl last night that the expenses have been paid and that cash receipts for the remainder of this assembly will go into the general chautauqua treasury

The church had scarcely been completed, however when the pastor was forced to resign because of ill health. He was succeeded by Rev. Mr. Rimer of Indianapolis, Ind. The church cost about $10,000.

A report on the condition of the Morgan county roads was made. They are now in worse condition than they have been for years and the officers of the good roads association will take steps to better them.

A communication was sent to the president of the board of the Village of South Jacksonville asking him to see what could be done to improve portion of S. Main St. in that village. Many complaints have been heard by the board on this condition and so they were moved to make this request.

It was decided to hold the meeting of the board the second Tuesday of each month instead of the first as many members found the first Tuesday inconvenient.

ILLINOIS COAL OPERATORS STATEMENT

Explanation of the Illinois Coal Operators position relative to the Cleveland agreement. Dr. F. C. Honnold, secretary of the association made the following statement:

The signing of a working agreement and wage scale at Cleveland today by a handful of operators representing a maximum annual production of 25,000,000 tons represents an absolute surrender and greatly jeopardzes the welfare of the public.

Briefly, the settlement arrived at is this—mine owners and mine workers are to resume operation with a status quo of March 31st, 1922—wage scales, check-off, everything.

The fact finding or advisory committee agreed to contemplates no accomplishment in the way of a bona fide arbitration and both parties, to the agreement fully understand this.

A war is never over until some one surrenders. That part of the Ohio operators who are signing up with Mr. Lewis today never were at war with the miners' union—in consequence they have not capitulated to the union. Their course has been consistent from the start. It has been one of the neutral districts in this strife. This is so by reason of the unusual conditions that surrounded them in the way of a ready market for their coal under ordinary circumstances at an amply adequate price to pay almost any wage rate and still make money. In the crucial test of 1921, Eastern Ohio fields suffered by comparison not at all from non-union competition. They could continue to pay the highest rate to their men and it would be no skin off their knuckles if the consumer had to pay them in accordance for coal.

During the last six months of 1921, when other coal mines throughout the country were almost universally losing money and competition for the sale of coal was so keen that men ceased to be friends, Eastern Ohio operated at the rate of 52.6 per cent o full time. Her nearest union competitor, Southern Ohio, managed to record 22.9 per cent in that same period, while Illinois averaged 40 per cent work time.

Is it any wonder that Eastern Ohio has not been in favor of ighting it out with the union? How can anyone call them quitters when they never started?

It cannot be heralded as victory for John Lewis that he has lined up that group of operators.

The question of supply of fuel for homes, transportation and industry or this winter has long since become so acute that the President virtually took charge of the situation. He was after coal production for the people. He asked the contestants to forget their strife for a while and produce the needed coal meanwhile urging the submission of the points at issue to a third party, an impartial tribunal. The government in both the coal and rail strikes is committed to the policy of establishing the principle of arbitration in these industrial disputes.

Since the Cleveland settlement practically guarantees only a repetition next spring of all the extravagant demands by the miners and another prolonged strike, Illinois operators, regardless of some possible defections from their ranks, will continue to urge bona fide arbitration as a condition precedent to continuing the old wage scale until next March 31st.

Nor may that part of the public that is unthinking and inclined to find fault need to feel that such action on the part of the operators is willful ,arbitrary, selfishly conceived and to the very great detriment of the public.

We already note in the newspapers of this morning a discussion by the Attorney General of two ways in which the state can seize mines. This is an idle contemplation since such seizure is not at all necessary if the public is willing to pay to the miners all that they ask under their monopolistic control of coal mine labor of the state.

Mere possession of the mines by the state will in itself produce no coal. Labor is essential. If it refuses to work, to confer or to arbitrate and the state may not compel it to do these things then the price asked and the conditions demanded must be granted by the state. If and when the public shall indicate their desire and willingness that Illinois operators shall, as certain individual operators in Cleveland have done, grant ful surrender to the miners, it can be more readily done by the operators and without the necessity of any state interference.

It is not the mine owners that stand in the way of resumption of mine operation and at a mine cost that would permit of lower prices than prevailed last year. To the contrary it is the United Mine Workers of America who have successfully resisted the operators and have so far defied both the federal government, the state government and the public.

The paramount question continues to be—shall the miners as well as other organized groups of labor be made responsible for their acts and subject to the will of the people expressed through fair arbitration.

INTERESTING SOUVENIRS

Mrs. William H. Wright, in looking over some of her old time household treasures found two articles which will bring to mind the election of 1888. The first was a bogus ticket and read:

"The old Steamer Democracy will make her last and final trip up Salt River under the charge of the following:

Grover Cleveland, first mate.
The Old Roman and his banadana second mate.
A. J. Streeter in charge of the silver ware.
Bar tender, Charles B. Fisk.
Assistant, "Thank God" Brooks
Chambermaid, Belva Lockwood.
On account of free trade and pension vetoes.
Music by Lord Sackville West's orchestra.
No stopover will be allowed. The Can't Can't will be danced during the trip. Refrain by all hands, "Ma, where's my Pa?"
"Gone a Fishing, Ha! Ha!

Conditions

Soap and water will be carried and distributed free of charge to all the great unwashed who voted the straight Democratic ticket.

This pass will be honored when presented by a straight Democrat or Prohibitionist.

The steamer wil stop at Springfield for the old man Palmer who having collided with Private Joe and and the 53 cents will be towed to the New Jersey State line.

Amount of baggage allowed each person will be a corn cob pipe plenty of Long Green and a 10-gallon keg of (Free Whiskey")

When Hon. W. J. Bryan was a student in Illinois College he boarded with a friend, E. F. Glover on West College street and the latter sent Mr. Bryan a ticket to which the gentleman responded.

E. F. Glover, Esq., Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Friend:

I have just received a pass adorned with your business card. The free pass purports to offer me free transportation up Salt River on the old steamer, Democracy. Please accept this as another indication of your good will and friendliness toward me, but I must decline to use it for obvious reasons.

First. I have made fifty speeches in thirty counties in this state in behalf of Democracy and the fact that you offer me a special favor would indicate that I had, in the language of Mr. Blaine done you a great favor without knowing it. I am indignant at such a suggestion.

Second. I am of the opinion that the limits of the interstate commerce law are broad enough to cover this case and the giving of this pass is a violation of this law. I cannot therefore consent to violate the laws of our country or encourage others to do so.

As managed for the last four years it is a scab route anyhow. It has gone on the theory that a dollar a day is enough for a working man and I do not care to encourage the theory lest it some day should apply to my own proposition.

Fourth. The pass is not accompanied by a return ticket. When a boy I used to walk a good ways to get to ride back on a sleigh but have never yet accepted an invitation to ride on a boat one way with the expectation of swimmipg back.

Fifth. I have some baggage to take with me which you have neglected to provide for. A clear conscience and a good assortment of honest convictions. I can pardon this omission if it is due to the fact that in providing for the trip your party took four years ago you did not carry any such baggage. I am glad that you recognize that this is your last trip. In that we agree. We will not have to take the trip again. From long disuse we had lost the sort of defensive warfare but now that we have been put upon the aggressive look out for the G. O. P., you have defeated us this time but you can't do it again. We have regret without remorse; defeat without destruction; sorrow without despair.

Yours truly,
W. J. BRYAN

Got Rid of Her Burning Feet

Thanks to Husband's Kindness

Callouses Also Peeled Right Off, and Soft Corns Faded Away!

"For many years the burning callouses on my feet and soft corns between my toes, nearly drove me crazy," says Mrs. Anna Beckman. "My housework was endless torture and I was compelled to wear shoes much too large to get around at all. The terrible aches and pains almost ruined my nerves. In fact, I believe I aged ten years in the past year or two. Plasters, powders and medicated foot-baths did no good. But one day, thanks to my husband's kindness, he brought home a box of Gypsy Foot Relief, a secret from the desert. The very first time I used it, the burning stopped. Three days later the callouses peeled right off, leaving the skin soft and smooth, while the corns between my toes just seemed to fade away. The swelling went down and I can now wear shoes two sizes smaller than the ones I had to wear when my feet were in such awful shape. I really feel as if I had a pair of new feet, and I am telling all my friends and neighbors who have any foot troubles to use Gypsy Foot Relief."

NOTE:—Gypsy Foot Relief, referred to by Mrs. Beckman, can be applied in a minute, without fuss or bother. Sure, quick relief comes three minutes later, or the makers give back the little it costs. It is sold in this city by all good druggists including

MOVIE PATRONS GET REALISTIC PRODUCTION

The audience at Scott's theatre Wednesday evening was treated to a realistic performance. A picture "Made in Heaven" featuring Tom Moore was being shown.

Just as a fire scene was being produced on the screen the department passed the theater on its way to answer the alarm at the Schram-Buhrman jewelry store. The audience thought that Manager Scott had added some new apparatus to his theater equipment to make various screen scenes more realistic.

A little later in the picture, Tom Moore, the hero, who had invented a device for preventing fires, following the fire in his home, was in a fire station showing his device. While there an alarm came in and the scene showed the firemen sliding down the poles from their quarters and engines leaving the station for the fire.

Just at this time the local department again passed the theater on its return to the station. This made the scene so realistic that Justice A. B. Opperman who was in the audience went out to the ticket office to ask whether the department had really passed the theater or whether it was a part of the performance.

It was a remarkable coincidence Justice Opperman said, that the fire department should pass the theater twice at the exact time that the two fire scenes were being thrown on the screen.

DOUGLAS DISMISSED BY THE GIANTS

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 16—President John A. Heydler of the National League and Manager John J. McGraw of the New York National League base ball club declined tonight to go into details regarding the summary dismissal today of "Shufflin' Phil" Douglas star pitcher of the New York Giants.

Heydler and McGraw declared that the names of players involved in the affair would not be disclosed.

"We have issued a statement charging that Douglas wrote a letter to members of a competing team ofering to 'lay down' if financial inducements were worth while," said McGraw. "We also announced that Douglas admitted his guilt. So far as I am concerned the affair is a closed incident."

Baseball Commissioner Landis witnessed the New York Pittsburgh game but declined to discuss the afair.

President Preyfuss, of Pittsburgh told the Asociated Press tonight that local rumors that Douglas made the offer to friends on the local club, "were untrue."

President Heydler told a sport writer that he was confident that the offer was not made to anyone on the Chicago team.

COURT OF HONOR TO MEET INDEES AGAIN

Seth Dove Will Again Try to Turn Indees Back — Fryman Will Hurl for the Indees

Uncle Seth Dove and his Court of Honor team will be back to town again next Sunday to tackle Frank Smith's Indees.

The last trip of the Court of Honor here Dove put it over the Indees with a 4 to 2 count. The Indees will try to even the count Sunday.

The Indees are playing much better ball right now than at any time during the season and should have the support of the fans. Fryman will be on the rubber for the locals and the contest should be a fast one.

Smith has called a practice game for the Indees for Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock. All players are requested to be on hand at that time. On Tuesday, Aug. 22 the Indees will play Murrayville again at that place.

The games booked for the team for the next few weeks follow:

August 20—Court of Honor.
August 22 — Murrayville, at Murrayville.
September 3-4 — Murrayville here.
September 17-24—Open.
October 1—Jacksonville Dokays.

Summer is the ideal time for photographs of the youngsters. With school out of session there is time in plenty to plan for a sitting.

PACERS HAVE GREAT BATTLE AT BELMONT

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 16 In the Grand Circuit races today the fast time of 2:02 1-4, 2:01 1-4 and 2:02 were hung up for the 2:07 pacing event. The race was a battle in every heat between Jackson Gratton, the bay stallion sired by Solon Gratton and the black mare Edna Early, daughter of Robert C.

Cox drove Jackson Gratton and Thomas was behind Edna Early. The event was the Keim stake of $2,500 and the handsome Keim trophy.

In the first heat the horses fought head and head all the way with the stallion nosing out Edna Early at the wire. The second heat was just as exciting and once more the stallion won at the wire. Edna Early won the final heat the killing pace telling on both horses, altho the time was faster than the first heat. Three fast horses were distanced in this contest—Peter Henley, Cora Hal and John R.

The first race, the Nawbeek purse of $2,000 went to Hop Frisco driven by Tommy Murphy in straight heats.

Mary D., driven by McDonald won the Keith stake for 2:14 trotters, worth $1,000.

The Winogo special a free for all for 2:05 trotters was won by Jane The Great in straight heats.

GOVERNOR SAYS BOUT CANNOT BE HELD

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. Aug. 16. Officials of Laporte county have until 2 P. M. Friday to order abandonment of the Jack Dempsey Bill Brennan fight, scheduled for Labor Day, it was indicated today at the office of Governor McCray. Unless the officials take action by that time the governor will order the bout stopped. Governor McCray prepared a letter today to Sheriff Anstiss of Laporte county directing that the match be abandoned, but following conference with a delegation of Michigan City residents the governor consented to defer sending the letter so that the county officials might have an opportunity to take action.

Floyd Fitzsimmons, visited the state house but after his visit the governor said he was certain the bout would "not" be held.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord

Discounting the "Discount" in Advance

You don't have to be a shrewd bargainer to get the bottom price on the new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord.

Instead of listing it at a high price, to enable the dealer to attract you with a so-called "long discount," we list it as low as we profitably can.

You can see from the figures below that its advertised price is lower than the net price you are asked to pay for many "long discount" tires of unknown value.

We believe the average man would rather buy tires on this frank and open basis, and assure himself a product of recognized worth.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord is made of high-grade long-staple cotton, and it embodies the patented Goodyear method of group-ply construction.

In design, materials and manufacture it is a representative Goodyear product, built to safeguard the world-wide Goodyear reputation.

It has a different tread from the famous All-Weather Tread Cord—a new tread with a deep, clean-cut, cog-like pattern—and it sells for substantially less.

Compare these prices with NET prices you are asked to pay for "long discount" tires

30x3½ Clincher	$12.50	32x4 Straight Side	$24.50	33x4½ Straight Side	$32.15

PRICE OF WHEAT RALLIED SOMEWHAT

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Wheat rallied somewhat today from yesterday's depression the majority of traders assuming that the industrial outlook was better. Prices closed steady, ⅛ to ⅝c net higher with Sept. $1.00⅞ to $1.01 and Dec. $1.02⅛ to $1.02¼. Corn gained ⅛@⅜c to ⅜c, oats finished unchanged to a shade lower and provisions at 2c decline to 7c advance.

With coal mines reopening in many sections and with strength in the stock market taken here as indicating more likelihood of a settlement of the rail strike buyers of wheat developed a little confidence and there was absence of any great pressure to sell. Considerable purchasing was said to be for seaboard account and against export business. Besides there was covering on the part of shorts as well as some investment buying. Millers, too displayed a bit more interest than has been the rule of late.

It was estimated that 800,000 bushels of wheat were taken for Europe today. Foreign crop reports were generally construed as rather unfavorable and a decrease of 17,662,000 bushels for July in the world's available supply was contrasted with 1,115,000 bushels increase last year. An additional bullish factor was strength displayed by the corn market as a result of hot dry weather. Cash wheat premiums collapsed late in the day, with winter wheat premiums off 1c and premiums for new spring wheat 5 to 8c lower.

Crop damage reports especially from parts of Kansas and Nebraska had a bullish effect on the corn market altho partly offset by word of rain in Illinois.

Oats were easier owing to enlarged receipts here.

Export sales of 250,000 pounds of lard helped to lift provision values.

ADVANCE IN PRICES ON STOCK MARKET

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Wall Street found fresh encouragement today in the coal and rail strike situations indulging in an early buying demonstration that caused an appreciable advance in prices on the stock market.

This gave way to dullness later. Several individual issues reached new highs for the year. Profit-taking caused some irregularity at the close. The day's sales 675,000 shares were among the highest in recent weeks.

Most standard rails advanced 1 to 3 points in the early trading on buying orders based on the belief that a flood of traffic will be loosed by the termination of pending labor troubles but most gains were reduced to fractions by the selling pressure in the late dealings. Outstanding shares which registered a gain of a point or more, were Canadian Pacific, Chicago & Eastern Illinois and Chicago & Northwestern preferred. Union Pacific broke thru for a new high but closed at a net gain of only a small fraction. Trading in United States Steel which has not been active in recent weeks was more extensive today, presumably because of the beneficial effect that the settlement of the coal strike is likely to have on its production figures. The common advanced nearly a point.

An easier tone prevailed in the call money market the opening and renewing rate of 3½ per per cent being the lowest in a fortnight.

An abundance of offerings caused the price to ease to 3 per cent where it held until closing. Banks report a fair amount of money maturing.

Liberty bond prices were irregular.

Yesterday afternoon P. C. Primis, one of the managers of the Douglas Hotel, was driving east on West Court street just west of the alley on the east side of Barr's laundry. Wallace Moore drove out of the alley in a light speedster. Mr. Primis was driving a heavier Hudson car and the cars collided. BRYAN'S ELOQUENCE SWAYS AUDIENCE

Thousands Gave Attentive Ear as Former Secretary of State Made Argument That World's Greatest Need is Righteousness in Hearts of Men

William Jennings Bryan came to Jacksonville yesterday and saw and conquered. That is not exactly correct statement, either, for Mr. Bryan long since made a successful conquest of Morgan county and no other platform speaker is accorded quite the hearing that is given him. The Commoner's theme was "The World's Greatest Need," and the address proved to be an eloquent appeal for the supremacy of real old time religion.

Basing his argument upon the truth of the Bible, Mr. Bryan summed up an array of facts to show that religion in the hearts of men would settle the grave questions which now disturb individuals and society. It would have been a disappointment to the great audience if Mr. Bryan had not given his views on evolution before concluding his address, and the applause given afforded ample proof of the sympathy that the Morgan county people have with his feeling that it is better to begin with the Bible and reason downward than to begin with the earth and struggle upward.

It was a tremendously hot day. The Tschaikowsky group of musicians came by automobile from Springfield nearly an hour late. Mr. Bryan's train was far behind the schedule but the thousands of people waited good naturedly until the program could begin. Meanwhile Dr. Gage proved his efficiency as a platform manager for he helped very materially in keeping the audience occupied so that the delay seemed less lengthy. Mass singing filled in much of the time.

Always Eloquent

Mr. Bryan's eloquence loses nothing with the passage of time. His words and metaphors are well chosen. There is never a slip of the tongue, never a sign of hesitation. That he retains his old time virility of speech is in itself marvelous, for he has been holding the attention of chautauqua audiences for lo these twenty-seven years.

The speaker began by mentioning a number of big subjects which he said he would have liked to discuss had time made it possible. He said that the gulf between the person of large income and the average wage earner in the matter of taxation is wider than ever before and presents one of the big questions of the day for proper solution.

The people must address themselves to finding some way for the settlement of disputes between capital and labor, he said, some method which does not lose sight of the interest that the public at large has in these matters.

The Prohibition Struggle

Reference was made to the enforcement of the prohibition amendment, which Mr. Bryan called a struggle between law and lawlessness. He said he wished he had time to talk about profiteering, for there is something basicly wrong in a situation that so greatly reduces the buying power of the farmer, and he said no real prosperity can come until this matter is straightened out and until the hand of the profiteer is taken from the throat of the people.

"I wish said Mr. Bryan," that I could discuss with you the general effects of the great war, the results that have come about from the loss of life and from the enormous expenditures of money, and which exist today because of the debts accrued as the result of the war. The world longs to get out of the possibility of war, but this cannot come about until the period of disarmament and that day must come only after many conferences and agreements.

What Can a Man Earn?

"But the time is not at hand and I am going to talk to you for the discussion of these things about the world's greatest need. In considering this matter I will ask the question, how much money can a man righteously collect? I believe it possible that in the span of a human life a man man be entitled to hundreds of thousands of dollars — yes, millions of dollars. The measure is just that of service, and a man is entitled to pay just such as he serves. What did Lincoln earn? What was the value of the service of the man who brought lightning down to earth and ran it over wires for the service of man? The telephone, wireless telegraphy, the radio, the gas engine, the ice machine, the sewing machine—how much did men earn who gave these things to the use of humanity? Then turning to another class of service, think of the man who discovered the remedy for yellow fever, that for typhoid fever, and the wealth of the service of men who teach how to combat tuberculosis and cancer, those who established the Sunday school, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. P. S. C. E., Bishop Vincent who founded the first chautauqua. Measure, if you can, the service of these people and you will understand that millions of dollars would not be too much to pay.

Service The Test.

"It is a divine law that man must work and except by force and cunning there is no other way of acquirement. So in the order of things today each one of us must work to be absolutely sure that a dollar's worth of service is given for every dollar acquired. The resulting spirit would prove the cure for all our ills, and injustice would be eliminated. So I say that to get back to God is the world's greatest need today.

"Years ago Christ told the lawyer that the greatest commandment was to love thy God with all thy soul and mind and strength. So today the world's greatest need is whole-hearted, whole-souled love of God.

"Without faith in God there is no prayer. Religion rests on God and without Him there is no future life and the grave is the end. Without belief in God and His fatherhood we wait in vain for brotherhood. There are but two attitudes in life, that of tht brother and that of the brute.

"No great reform in a thousand years has been built other than upon Christianity and the Man of Galilee was the great fact of history.

The Inspired Book.

"Have you thought that Bible means more to you than all other books that were ever written? Today the great issue which overshadows all is whether the Bible is the word of God or the word of man. If it is a man made book it cannot endure. If you believe in the Bible you must defend it as the word of God."

Then Mr. Bryan went on to pay his respects to those who dispute the divine origin of the book, its secret enemies, and quoted verses from the first chapter of Genesis to prove his belief that man, like the Bible, is of divine origin and not the product of evolution in accordance with the theory of Darwin. "The atheist," he said, "swaggers about asking questions. But if you can ask him a question then you have him. Atheism never gets back of nebular hypothesis and assumes that matter and force were both originally here. I prefer to go from God down rather than from matter up." The argument against evolution was pursued further and Mr. Bryan said that he had never learned the bitterness of epithets until he had gotten into this argument with the scientists and quoted a Presbyterian church paper as saying that he had always been a moral leader rather than an intellectualist.

"I have pity for the man who thinks that he is self-made. To such I say, write down the list of your accomplishments, the things that you have done, and then subtract from the list those things that have come to pass, thru inheritance or from some source entirely beyond your control. Then look over the results and you will not be in a boastful frame of mind."

So for fully an hour and a half the great audience listened to Mr. Bryan sermonize and the close attention given thruout the long address with the mercury registering more than a hundred gave certain proof of the genuine interest of the auditors.
